

ICM Issue Areas

The Independent Commission on Multilateralism will analyze the multilateral system through the lens of the following fifteen issue areas:

- 1) New Threats, Challenges, and Opportunities for the Multilateral System
- 2) Social Inclusion, Political Participation, and Effective Governance in Challenging Environments
- 3) Terrorism, including issues related to Ideology, Identity Politics, and Organized Crime
- 4) Armed Conflict within and between States
- 5) Weapons of Mass Destruction, Non-Proliferation, and Disarmament
- 6) Fragile States and Fragile Cities
- 7) Security and Development
- 8) Security and Public Health
- 9) Security and Justice, Human Rights, and the International Legal System
- 10) Security and Humanitarian Affairs
- 11) Security and Forced Displacement
- 12) Women, Peace & Security, and Gender Mainstreaming
- 13) New Technologies and Security
- 14) The Relationship between the UN, Regional Organizations, Civil Society, and the Private Sector, and NGOs
- 15) Communication Strategy for the UN multilateral system